

Airbrush Nails

Course Description

Airbrushed nails look stunning and creating them is an exciting way to boost your income, you can charge an additional £20 per set.

Excite your friends and customers by creating unique designs for her wedding, valentine, or holiday celebrations. Whether you're creating a sophisticated French manicure, a subtle colour blend, or an outrageous abstract, the silky finish and depth of colour achievable with an airbrush simply cannot be reproduced in any other way.

Assessment

You post your progress cards and question papers back to us. We look at each nail you've created, prepare a report for you on your work and issue a distinction, credit, pass or fail. Should you fail, we will annotate each problem and suggest a way you can improve. Resubmission of work for re-assessment is free and most students who have failed the first time pass on the second attempt. When the course is passed, you receive a handsome certificate and can obtain your liability insurance and start work immediately.

Support

The Home Learn teaching DVDs have been produced with meticulous care and attention to detail, with close-up action and clear diagrams. Your teacher is a nail champion and she guides you through the course which is split into three parts. One to one coaching over the phone or email is included to help you achieve your goals. *Please note: Exceptions in cancellation policy apply.
